

The USSA Level 100 Coaches' Certification Technique Clinics will be held in conjunction with upcoming USSA events in Park City, Utah. The USSA Level 100 certification is a four-step process targeted at providing a foundation in both general and ski-specific coaches' education. There will be L100 technique clinics throughout the country. Following are the dates, times and upcoming clinics in Park City, UT:

- Park City, Utah: (during U.S. Ski Team October camp)
USSA Center of Excellence – 1 Victory Lane Park City, UT 84050- Saturday, October 8th @ 2:00 – 4:00 PM (contact Bryan Fish – bfish@ussa.org to sign up)
- Park City, Utah: (prior to USSA National Coaches Symposium)
USSA Center of Excellence – 1 Victory Lane Park City, UT 84050- Friday, October 21th @ 9:00 – 11:00 AM (contact Bryan Fish – bfish@ussa.org to sign up)

The USSA Level 100 Coaches' Certification Technique Clinics cover technique drills on foot as well as both classic and skate rollerskis. Coaches will actively participate, so please bring the following:

- Active outdoor apparel
- Running shoes
- Rollerskis, boots and poles for both classic and skate
- Helmet
- Bright safety shirt for rollerskiing on the roadways
- Water bottle

We encourage all levels of coaching to participate.

Please go to www.ussa.org (click on members-coaches-education-Cross Country) for further information on the USSA Coaches Certification process.

Look forward to further USSA Level 100 Coaches' Certification Technique Clinics within your respective region.

U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association
The National Governing Body for Olympic Skiing and Snowboarding